Since it's your fault I hurt my butt
It's a rule that relatively energetic students who can't partie-pate in PE have to pull weeds in the school yard
I can believe this!
Why do I have to pull weeds??
If you feel good enough to do that, you should join the class!
And show you exactly how much it hurts?
Shall I kick you
Speaking of which, you shouldn't skip out on PE just because you fell and hit your ass.

But it's just a boring part of school

"Every one Has a magical Girl inside them"

Hey Sithblaze here,

I thought I would add a little page to Chapter 20 to go over a few things with all you avid readers, first of all the title page needs a slight explanation (You put on {me) what I lack) this is typical Japanese wordplay using homonyms, for those of you who are heavy manga readers (Which should be all of you have at least read this far) will be familiar with this type of wordplay.

Secondly I just wanted to say that yeah I know the scans are poor quality but please bear with it because until I'm able to get my hands on better versions it's what we're stuck with (Sorry Boys and Girls).

As a note I thought I best mention that patience is a virtue that sadly many people lack, I am an extremely busy person (Both Work and Uni keep me on my toes) and this manga is a pet project that I have been undertaking all by myself (Alongside editing some of the many Light Novels that are in need of editing so that all you good people can have your does of Otaku culture). So with this in mind I would appreciate your continued patience while waiting for Ibitsu (After all it is worth waiting for).

With that in mind I would like to thank you all for reading and the continued support of this manga.

If you have any questions feel free to contact me through MangaFox . . . but please no peasants, the poor annoy me. . .

Thanks
Sithblaze

Chapter 21: Regret

Step by step, it's reaching its completion, the doll based on Madoka's body

Kakiguchi Keigo works in an adult toy store virgin doll maker
She must have, she must have...
What?
Since that goddess gave in, I didn't she?
The model's
The body's slenderness has been made more noticeable, now it's better I think
I thought today I might get some advice from you well, here
Lately I've started to make the joints that way so
Err yeah, sure.
Goddess...?
If we can meet the goddess.♡
That's absolutely fine
Goddess...?

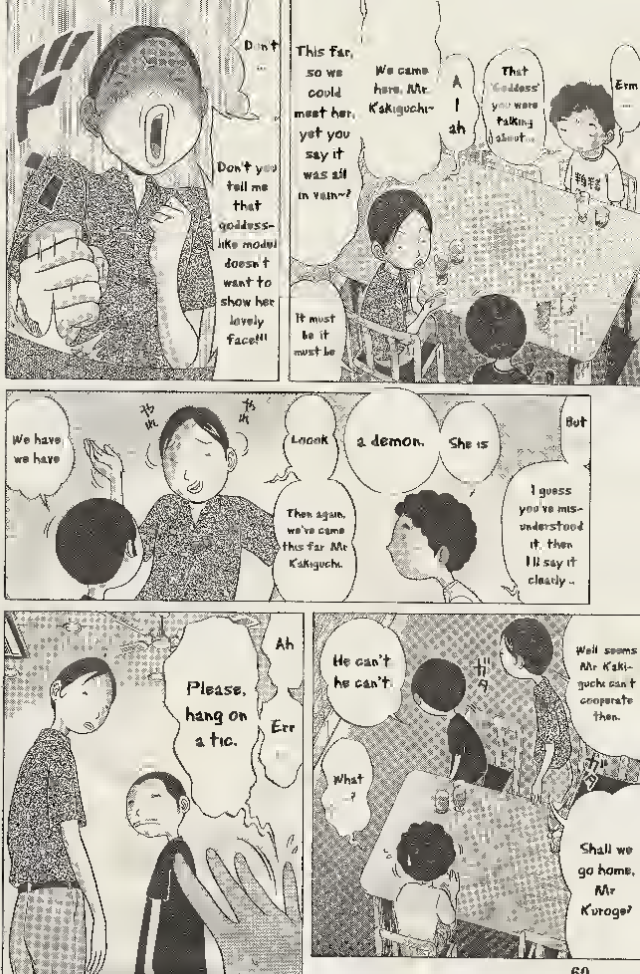
The story meanwhile Medoka the high school student mentchingly lives in Kakiguchi's house Kakiguchi the man who reacts to Medoka's body and Medoka, whose body reacts as she sees Kakiguchi Those two are living together and the daily misfortune for each other...?



Don't ...
Don't you tell me that goddess-like model doesn't want to show her lovely face!!!
This far, so we could meet her, yet you say it was all in vain~?
We came here, Mr. Kakiguchi~
It must be it must be
Ah
That 'Goddess' you were talking about...
Erm ...
We have, we have
Look
a demon.
She is
But
Then again, we've come this far Mr Kakiguchi.
I guess you've misunderstood it, then I'll say it clearly..
Please, hang on a tic.
Ah
Err
He can't he can't.
What ...?
Well seems Mr Kakiguchi can't cooperate then.
Shall we go home, Mr Kuroge?

Kakiguchi's doll maker mates. Once Madoka was shown to them, because they doubt she really poses for the doll.
strong enough?
Are your hearts
Yeah?
Through her words she relentlessly hurts you, makes you feel utter emptiness and bends you 'till you break... Do you think yourselves prepared?
That demon emits nothing but poison.
Monitege Madoka a high schooler girl ran away from home She met Kakiguchi while he molested her
Since you really don't get it...
It would it would.
Then, it would be a pleasure to meet her, wouldn't it?♡
You will, you will.
With such speech that sounds like it's from a B-category horror film, you will just raise suspicion in us Mr. Kakiguchi!

UWAA AAAA AAAH!!!

As craftsmen we are
That uniform is transparent to us. ♡

It really does
It's relatively small hehe but its shape stands out... hehe ♡
And I must say it turned out surprisingly well

Just as I thought

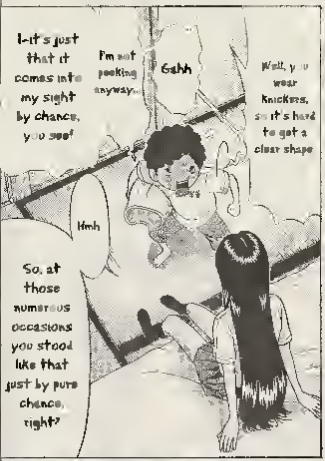
We could, we could
If you don't mind
We could make it even more perfect
It sure is smaller in reality
Tch, it's bigger and more round.
It's so genuine...
And when they are away. I don't want to have them appear in front of my eyes again consider this no less than a warning
I don't feel too well
I'd like to have this sexually ravaging and disgustingly unpleasant duo to leave at once
Kaki-guchi-san

Truth is that it's on my mind as well. One glance at the lower parts and you easily notice it...
But... making dolls really is good.

... you see
It was a bit harsh.
I didn't say anything more than the truth itself.



I-it's just that it comes into my sight by chance, you see!
I'm not looking anyway...
Gahh
Well, you wear knickers, so it's hard to get a clear shape

So, at those numerous occasions you stood like that just by pure chance, right?

Sorry but since I don't have a bikini thong or anything like that you have to make the room dark and only lit by a candle is that okay with you?
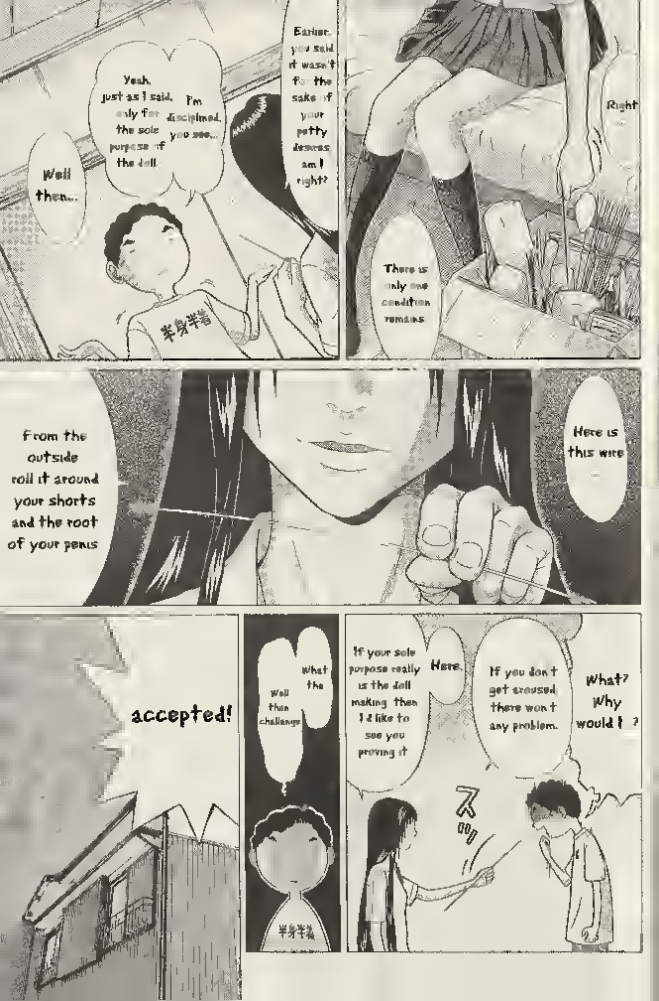
Then...



Earlier, you said it wasn't for the sake of your petty desires, am I right?
Yeah, just as I said, I'm disciplined, only for the sole purpose of the doll you see...
Well then...
Right
There is only one condition remains
From the outside roll it around your shorts and the root of your penis
Here is this wire

Why would I ?

Note for page 06

Ageman and sageman. Japanese terms for a woman who increases or decreases the luck of the man she sleeps with. Derived from the verbs AGEru (to elevate) and SAGEru (to lower) respectively.
The latter part is a bit more debated. It's said to have originated from the Kansai (southern-central part of Japan) dialectical pronunciation of the term "Ma ga yoi/warui" (lucky-unlucky) because they say it rather like "Man ga yoi."
However nowadays it is more likely associated with the slang word for the female genitalia (manko), thus also creating a male equivalent for the term agechin and sagechin (derived from the slang word chinchin).

Another miscellaneous note

As the reader might have noticed I quite often used the plural personal pronoun "we" when Madoka addressed Kakiguchi instead of "you." The thing is that in the original Japanese text Madoka rarely uses any personal pronoun, which is not an unusual thing in the Japanese language. On those rare occasions when she does use some it's mainly "atashi," which refers to herself.
But I felt that their relationship is getting deeper and because of some subtle signs I felt it's suitable to translate it that way.
